BAMBOO SHOOTS, THIS WILL SERIOUSLY KILL OR SERIOUSLY HURT SOMEONE. THIS PROPERTY BELONGS TO THE TOWN OF ISLIP WHO IS REFUSING TO PUT THEIR ATTENTION TO! BESIDES THE FACT THEY ARE ILLEGAL.

OCTOBER 2011, The Islip Town Board is considering legislation that would impose limits on the use of bamboo on public and private property throughout the township.

According to a first draft of the proposed law, Islip officials have found that the rapid growth and spread of many species of bamboo to be a threat to the Town's natural ecosystem. Officials said the intent of the proposed ordinance is to prevent and police the unwanted encroachment of bamboo on to private and public property throughout Islip.

The Town's initial draft calls for prohibiting the planting of bamboo within 10 feet of a property line, street or sidewalk. Penalties for violating the law could include fines ranging from $250 to $2,500 and up to 15 days in jail.

Bamboo, be gone!

Following on the heels of Smithtown's new bamboo-banning law, Islip Town plans to give its residents until Jan. 1 to rid their properties of any potential for trespassing by the invasive plant.

The town board voted Wednesday to hold a public hearing to consider changing the town code so that homeowners will have to maintain a 10-foot setback for any bamboo planted on their properties to prevent unwanted encroachment.

This bamboo is on TOWN OF ISLIP PROPERTY, they refuse to acknowledge it. For that matter, the entire corner.
